

Jobs In The Woods Watershed Restoration Program
Cost Share and In-Kind Contributions by Organization
From 1995-2002

The following table lists the dollar value of Jobs in the Woods (JITW) Watershed Restoration Program allocations and cost share and in-kind contributions provided for funded projects. Information is listed by the type of organization our project partners represented. The JITW Program in California and southern Oregon leveraged cost share dollars in excess of 100 percent of their total program allocations.

Organization	JITW Program Allocation	Cost Share and In-Kind Contributions from Partners
County Government	$50,000	$65,590
Industrial/Commercial Landowners	$360,500	$669,619
Non-Profit and Conservation Organizations	$249,513	$208,195
Soil and Water Conservation Districts, RCDs	$1,487,545	$122,804
California State Agencies	$273,052	$1,598,958
Tribal Governments	$1,345,118	$383,591
Watershed Groups	$154,931	$110,725
Individual Landowners	$983,041	$506,315
Federal Agencies	$511,366	$2,262,738
Other	$0	$21,542
TOTALS	$5,415,006	$5,950,077